

Right to Read Week 2018

May 21-25

*DEAR (Drop Everything And Read) time scheduled daily at teachers' discretion.

A paper green leaf will be sent home for each student Preschool-Grade 8 to write a poem title and the poet's name to add to the poe-tree. Due back Wednesday, May 23.

MONDAY

- Special Guest Reader reads Fox in Socks on the announcements
- Knock Your Socks Off-wear crazy socks with your uniform
- Read a book that knocks your socks off with a buddy class

TUESDAY (2nd Grade and 5th Grade Field Trips)

- Black Out for Books-wear all black (dress down), bring a flashlight for DEAR time
- SSR with flashlights; teachers close blinds for reading time

WEDNESDAY (AR bowling party)

- Read a tee shirt day-wear school-appropriate tee shirt with writing on it with uniform shorts or skirt/jumper
- Poe-tree Day-Students add their poetry title and author to the poe-tree by the office

THURSDAY

- Book Character Day-Dress as your favorite book character (character should be easily recognized – not a dress down day)
- Teacher Swap-Classroom teachers will read aloud to partner class

FRIDAY (Student Council vs. Teachers Volleyball Game)

- Hats off to books-wear any hat; leave in class for Mass
- Read to explore the world-DEAR time outdoors or in unconventional location